

BUSINESS - ACCOUNTING - ONLINE (BUAO)

Ontario College Diploma | 4 semesters | Online

Prepare for career opportunities from the comfort of your own home. Take our general accounting stream as you gain the skills and hands-on experience to land entry-level accounting positions within non-profits, corporations, and other for-profit organizations.

Following a first year of common curriculum shared by all accounting and business students, you will be immersed in accounting principles and practices and have the opportunity to gain real-world experience through a work placement.

This program will be delivered online. It has been designed to accommodate students who want to continue their studies towards an online degree or get entry into the professional accounting programs such as the Advanced Certificate in Accounting and Finance (ACAF) or the Certified Aboriginal Financial Manager (CAFM) designation. As a graduate, you may opt to take one additional year in the Business Administration - Accounting program to enhance your skills, obtain advanced standings into the ACAF, and/or obtained advanced standing for a degree program. In order to enter into the ACAF certificate or the CAFM designation programs, students must achieve a 60% average or more in certain courses and an overall average of 65% in Cambrian's Business - Accounting - Online program.

Program Highlights

- 2 years – 4 semesters
- All courses delivered online
- Successful graduates can enter into the 3rd year of Cambrian's Business Administration – Accounting program
- Opportunity to receive credits towards the Certified Aboriginal Financial Management (CAFM) designation or the Advanced Certificate in Accounting and Finance (ACAF)
- This is a Northern College's Collaborative Delivery program (see cambriancollege.ca/ncc (<http://cambriancollege.ca/ncc>))
