

ACCOMMODATION AND HUMAN RIGHTS MANAGEMENT (AHRM)

Knowledge of workplace rights and accommodations is a key, high-demand industry skill that opens up a wide range of possibilities. Increase your career prospects in human rights, disability management, return to work, advocacy, or accommodation with this fully online program. Through interactive courses, you'll gain a comprehensive and holistic understanding of human rights law, health and wellness strategies, and disability management. You'll learn essential skills that human resource professionals need to navigate — national and provincial employment legislation.

Upon graduation, you can immediately apply your skills to the workplace or continue your academic journey in fields such as social science, law, or human resources.

Admission requirements

Applicants must be graduates of a diploma, advanced diploma, or degree program from an Ontario College or equivalent.

Course delivery

Please visit Cambrian College's eStore (<https://cambrian.estore.flywire.com/products/?storeCatalog=10752>) to see which courses from this program are available for registration at this time.

Courses are delivered asynchronously online. This means you do not have to log in at a specific day or time to complete your coursework. However, you are responsible for meeting all course due dates as posted within the course. Most courses will have weekly modules or assignments to complete. We recommend that students budget a minimum of 5 hours per week per 3-credit course they are taking online to be successful.

Important Note: Cambrian College reserves the right to cancel the offering of courses in certain terms.
